

Brian G. Soublet, JD (He/Him)

Senate Appointee, California Privacy Protection Agency

Brian began his legal career in the City Attorney's Office in Oakland as an Assistant City Attorney. He practiced as an insurance defense counsel for several years before transitioning to state service as a Staff Counsel at the Department of Insurance, where he served as an Assistant Chief Counsel and General Counsel. Brian continued his state service at the Department of Motor Vehicles as an Assistant Chief Counsel and was appointed to the position of General Counsel by Governor Brown. After 28 years in state service, Brian retired in August 2020; however, in the fall of 2021 Brian accepted a retired annuitant position at the California Privacy Protection Agency serving as the Agency's initial Acting Chief Counsel and later as the Probable Cause hearing officer. Brian has worked on a wide variety of regulatory issues including: regulations governing Auto Insurance Premium Rating Factors, Autonomous Vehicle Testing and Deployment Without a Driver, Driver's Licenses for Undocumented Immigrants, and more recently the CPPA's initial Privacy regulations. Brian has 2 adult children, Simone of Jacksonville, Florida and Sterling of Sacramento.