

Greg Scull (He/Him)Data Provider and Agency Representative, California School Information Services

As Interim Chief Operations Officer, Greg Scull leads the California School Information Services (CSIS) in its mission to build local capacity in support of effective pupil information systems. CSIS encourages regional leadership in cultivating local best practices, increases transparency in state use of local data, and builds a variety of tools and modern software to serve the larger statewide educational data ecosystem, including CALPADS (California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System).